Resolution Recognizing the Contribution Leanne Emm has Made to Education in Colorado

WHEREAS: Deputy Commissioner of School Finance and Operations Leanne Emm has been an invaluable member of the Colorado Department of Education since she was appointed as assistant commissioner of school finance in 2011; and

WHEREAS: Ms. Emm spent almost 14 years working for the Jefferson County School District in the areas of budget and finance, as well as being involved in the district's federal programs, pupil counts, debt issuance and system improvements; and

WHEREAS: Ms. Emm's expertise, experience and clear-eyed understanding of the complicated world of school finance allowed her to easily explain the intricacies to the State Board of Education, state legislators, CDE employees and the general public; and

WHEREAS: Ms. Emm is a fourth-generation Coloradan whose passion for educators, CDE staff and Colorado's children gave her a greater understanding of how the state's money issues played out in classrooms and board rooms across the state; and

WHEREAS: Ms. Emm will soon be rollicking down the Colorado River on an epic raft trip through the Grand Canyon that makes us all jealous;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

The Colorado State Board of Education formally recognizes, honors and thanks Deputy Commissioner of School Finance and Operations Leanne Emm for her years of public service, her commitment to the education of the children of Colorado and her steady and astute handle on complex school finance issues.
