   - Find the postsecondary goals for this student
   - If there are appropriate measurable postsecondary goals that address Training after high school, Education after high school, and Employment after high school, and (where appropriate) independent living Skills after high school and if the identified postsecondary goals for Training, Education, and Employment, and (where appropriate) Independent Living Skills appear to be appropriate for the student, based on the other information regarding Present Levels of Academic and Functional Performance and / or the student's strengths, preferences, and interests, circle Y
   - If a student's postsecondary goals in the areas of Training and Education address both training for a career and other education after high school (e.g., enrollment in an adult education program focused on both job and independent living skills; enrollment in a college program in preparation for a career in architecture), circle Y
   - "it may not always be necessary for the student to have separate postsecondary goals for training and education in these instances. Based on the individual needs of the student and the student's plans after leaving high school, it may be reasonable for an IEP Team to interpret the areas of training and education as overlapping in developing postsecondary goals for a student. In these instances, an IEP Team could develop a combined postsecondary goal in the areas related to training and education. Employment is a distinct activity from the areas related to training and education, and each student's IEP must include a separate postsecondary goal in the area of employment. For further information see Questions and Answers on Secondary Transition, Revised September 2011, OSEP, Retrieved http://idea.ed.gov/explore/view/p/%2Croot%2Cdynamic%2CQaCorner%2C10%2C*).*
