

Governor John Hickenlooper has designated October 2014
as Family and School Partnership in Education Month.

The goal is to support
educators and families in working together for every student's success.

Colorado October Proclamation

WHEREAS, Colorado continues to experience an unacceptably high dropout rate, inequalities in the academic achievement levels of students from different racial and socioeconomic groups, and low rates of enrollment and persistence in post-secondary education; and

WHEREAS, in order to address these issues the state must look for new strategies for improving public education; and

WHEREAS, studies show that when parents, families, and schools collaborate effectively, students achieve higher levels of academic performance, demonstrate better attendance and homework completion, and are less likely to drop out of school; and

WHEREAS, students from all cultural backgrounds tend to perform better academically when their parents, families, and the professionals at their schools bridge the gap between the culture at home and the classroom; and

WHEREAS, students benefit from active involvement by well-informed and engaged parents and families in their life and education; and

WHEREAS, Colorado desires to increase graduation rates, academic achievement levels of all students, and raise rates of enrollment and persistence in secondary and post-secondary education;

Therefore, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim October, 2014;

FAMILY AND SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP IN EDUCATION MONTH in the State of Colorado.

*GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado,
this first day of October, 2014*

Governor John Hickenlooper has designated October 2014
as Family and School Partnership in Education Month.

The goal is to support
educators and families in working together for
every student's success.

Colorado October Proclamation

WHEREAS, Colorado continues to experience an unacceptably high dropout rate, inequalities in the academic achievement levels of students from different racial and socioeconomic groups, and low rates of enrollment and persistence in post-secondary education; and

WHEREAS, in order to address these issues the state must look for new strategies for improving public education; and

WHEREAS, studies show that when parents, families, and schools collaborate effectively, students achieve higher levels of academic performance, demonstrate better attendance and homework completion, and are less likely to drop out of school; and

WHEREAS, students from all cultural backgrounds tend to perform better academically when their parents, families, and the professionals at their schools bridge the gap between the culture at home and the classroom; and

WHEREAS, students benefit from active involvement by well-informed and engaged parents and families in their life and education; and

WHEREAS, Colorado desires to increase graduation rates, academic achievement levels of all students, and raise rates of enrollment and persistence in secondary and post-secondary education;

Therefore, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim October, 2014;

FAMILY AND SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP IN EDUCATION MONTH in the State of Colorado.

*GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado,
this first day of October, 2014*

What Can Stakeholders Do To Celebrate This Month?

Everyone can...

- Review the national standards, goals and indicators for family-school partnerships (PTA, 2008).
- Personally plan an action that supports partnering and do it!
- Post the proclamation on school, district and organization websites.
- Announce the month at school, district and community meetings.
- Review a book or resource as individuals or in groups.
- Plan a shared stakeholder training focused on how families and schools can partner to increase student achievement.
- Develop classroom school-home and home-school partnering activities that focus on supporting student success.
- Check CDE's The Scoop <http://state.us5.list-manage.com/subscribe?u=bee6c43ae6102530cf98cadf9&id=ab7e1e5d57> and the SACPIE website for highlighted resources and stakeholder ideas.

For more information
and partnering materials:

SACPIE <http://www.cde.state.co.us/sacpie>

CDE <http://www.cde.state.co.us/resourcesforparents>

Questions Darcy Hutchins, CDE Family Partnership Director
hutchins_d@cde.state.co.us

What Can Stakeholders Do To Celebrate This Month?

Everyone can...

- Review the national standards, goals and indicators for family-school partnerships (PTA, 2008).
- Personally plan an action that supports partnering and do it!
- Post the proclamation on school, district and organization websites.
- Announce the month at school, district and community meetings.
- Review a book or resource as individuals or in groups.
- Plan a shared stakeholder training focused on how families and schools can partner to increase student achievement.
- Develop classroom school-home and home-school partnering activities that focus on supporting student success.
- Check CDE's The Scoop <http://state.us5.list-manage.com/subscribe?u=bee6c43ae6102530cf98cadf9&id=ab7e1e5d57> and the SACPIE website for highlighted resources and stakeholder ideas.

For more information
and partnering materials:

SACPIE <http://www.cde.state.co.us/sacpie>

CDE <http://www.cde.state.co.us/resourcesforparents>

Questions Darcy Hutchins, CDE Family Partnership Director
hutchins_d@cde.state.co.us