Resolution Recognizing the Contribution Peggy Littleton Has Made to the Education of Children in Colorado

- WHEREAS: Peggy Littleton has served on the State Board of Education since February of 2004; and,
- WHEREAS: Since that time, she has focused on the importance of literacy and has served on many boards and committees to direct the Department's work in this area; and,
- WHEREAS: She has made the use of data-driven and differentiated instruction in the classroom a priority; and,
- WHEREAS: She has seen the needs of children of military personnel and the unique educational challenges they face of central importance; and,
- WHEREAS: Ms. Littleton, along with the board as a whole, selected Dwight D. Jones as commissioner of education in 2007; and,
- WHEREAS: She, along with the board as a whole, supported the Department's long-term and on-going efforts to implement Colorado's education reform agenda, including, among others, the development of the state longitudinal data system known as "SchoolView" and the adoption of the Colorado Revised Model Content Standards in December 2009; now, therefore,
