Highly Effective School Library Program 2013 Recognition Recipients

Bennett High School Bennett, S.D.
Casey Veatch, TL CD-4
- Strong information technology integration
- Innovative leadership within the school and community

http://tinyurl.com/benneths

Bill Roberts ECE-8 School, Denver, S.D.
Suzanne Frachetti, TL CD-1
- Student collaborative projects and assessments uploaded to an interactive wiki;
- Extended learning opportunities, including summer technology boot camp

http://tinyurl.com/billrobertsece8

Chipeta Elementary CO Springs, District 11
Stephanie Marsh, TL CD-5
- Interactive web presence;
- Provides many project-based learning opportunities for students that focus on student collaboration

http://tinyurl.com/chipetahs

Deane Elementary, Jefferson County, S.D.
Lisa Seaberg, TL CD-7
- Strong evidence of collaboration, instruction, and an engaging learning environment
- Innovative technology integration/online presence and a leader within the school/community

http://tinyurl.com/deaneelem

Eaglecrest High School, Cherry Creek, S.D.
Kristen McKeown, TL CD-6
- A leader within the school
- Innovative 21st century skills for staff/students including Jing screencasts and twitter for teacher/student and research units

http://tinyurl.com/eaglecresths

East Middle School, Mesa County, D51
Becky Johnson, TL CD-3
- Strong evidence of integration of 21st century within many curricular areas as well as a visually appealing and interactive web page
- Leader within the school, community and state

http://tinyurl.com/eastms

Holmes Middle School, CO Springs, District 11
Rene Bohn, TL CD-5
- Strong technology focus for staff/students that provide meaningful integration of 21st century skills of CO Standards.
- Provides high-quality professional development opportunities

http://tinyurl.com/holmesms

Horizon High School, Adams 12
Sara Poinier CD-7
- Instructional leader as shown by state conference presenting and publication in national professional development journal
- Strong evidence of collaboration with both students and staff

http://tinyurl.com/horizonhs

Ken Caryl Middle School, Jefferson County, S.D.
Emilie Nickoloff, TL CD-7
- Innovative collaboration with staff that demonstrates staff leadership
- Web page provides access to students assessment

http://tinyurl.com/kencaryl

Martinez Elementary, CO Springs, District 11
Dawn Petty, TL CD-5
- Student-driven focus in lessons that include students as authors and student-created songs
- Fosters a culture of life-long learning and leaders

http://tinyurl.com/martinezem

Ralston Elementary & Jefferson County, S.D.
Parmalee Elementary, CD-7
Lindsay Garlow, TL
- Collaboration/backwards planning/creation of student assessments is evident at BOTH schools
- Provides evidence of implementing the five areas of the 21st century skills of the Colorado standards

http://tinyurl.com/ralstonparmalee

Ryan Elementary, Boulder Valley, S.D.
Erika Arias, TL CD-2
- Strategic plan is strongly aligned with the school's UIP plan and has very measurable outcomes
- Demonstrates a culture of collaboration, differentiation and co-teaching

http://tinyurl.com/ryanelem

Thomas Jefferson High School, Denver, S.D.
Michelle Jensen, TL CD-1
- Collaboration, productivity and student assessments are strengths
- Has created a culture of community involvement

http://tinyurl.com/thomasjeffhs

cde
Improving Academic Achievement
Colorado Department of Education
www.cde.state.co.us/cdelib/HighlyEffective